J. O. EMANUEL - CHAIRMAN
A. O. KOLAWOLE - MANAGING DIRECTOR / CEO

For a better understanding of the company's financial position and the results of its operations for the year and the scope of our audit, the financial information should be read in conjunction with the full financial statements for the year ended 31st December, 2009 from which they were derived and in respect of which auditor's report was issued.

REPORT OF THE AUDITORS TO THE MEMBERS OF
NLPC PENSION FUND ADMINISTRATORS LIMITED

We have audited the accompanying Financial Statements of NLPC Pension Fund Administrators Limited as at 31st December, 2009 as set out on pages 8 - 17 which have been prepared on the basis of the significant accounting policies on page 8 and other explanatory notes on pages 10 to 14.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the Companies and Allied Matters Act, CAP C20, LFN 2004 and Pension Reform Act, 2004. This responsibility includes: designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements to plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the Auditors' judgement including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the Auditors consider internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

OPINION

In our opinion, the Company has kept proper accounting records and the financial statements are in agreement with records in all material respects and give in the prescribed manner, information required by the Companies and Allied Matters Act, CAP C20, LFN 2004 and Pension Reform Act, 2004. The financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of NLPC Pension Fund Administrators Limited as at 31st December, 2009 and of its profit and cashflow for the year ended on that date in accordance with the Statements of Accounting Standards issued by the Nigerian Accounting Standards Board and relevant International Financial Reporting Standards
